

THE REAL ESTATE COUNCIL

TREC Statement on the Passing of D Magazine Founder Wick Allison

DALLAS (September 4, 2020) – The Real Estate Council (TREC) was sad to learn of the passing of Wick Allison this week. We'll miss his infectious enthusiasm, hearty laugh, and ability to bring diverse stakeholders together for the betterment of our city. Through our three-decade history, Wick was an ardent supporter of TREC and partnered with us on so many different efforts, from participating in our programs (which included leading an incredibly popular “History of Dallas” session for our Associate Leadership Council classes) to putting the spotlight on issues that were of vital importance to our members, industry, and city. His relentless advocacy and passion for Dallas are irreplaceable. Our thoughts are with Christine and the family during this time.
