

Michael Ablon

Michael Ablon is the founding partner of PegasusAblon, a developer and investor focused on the integration of evolving growth patterns and demographic shifts in Dallas- Ft. Worth.

Mr. Ablon has completed numerous noteworthy and well-known landmark projects with a cutting-edge ethos in the course of his career. He is fortunate to have led the redevelopment of the Dallas Design District, Preston Center Office Submarket, The Oak Lawn District, Frisco Square, The Harbor in Rockwall, Lower Greenville Avenue, and the 7th Street District in Ft. Worth. Mr. Ablon's culture driven projects include the creation of highly innovative developments including Retail, Office, and Multifamily assets. Mr. Ablon's work within PegasusAblon has led to the completion of over 5 million SF in DFW since its inception in 2007, and more than double that in his career.

Mr. Ablon and his firm have received numerous awards including Best Multifamily Design Projects, the Dallas Regional Chamber Momentum Award- Community Investor, Best Deal Award for Best Public/Private Partnership, 100 Fastest Growing Companies, and named the #1 Best Place to Work in DFW.

Mr. Ablon received his Bachelor of Engineering and Bachelor of Architecture degrees at the University of Texas at Austin and earned his master's degree from Harvard University. Early in his career, Ablon worked as an apprentice under the world-renowned theorist and architect Robert Venturi in Philadelphia, and was a visiting lecturer at Harvard and Yale. Amongst other personal awards and recognitions, he was a recipient of a Lloyd Warren Travelling Fellowship in Europe for the Paris Prize Competition, a two-time finalist for the Fulbright U.S. Scholar Fellowship for architectural theory, named one of the 500 Most Powerful Business Leaders in DFW, a recipient of the Pioneer Award for Real Estate in Dallas, named a Living Legend in 2023 in Dallas for his community service work, and named a 2020 Texas Real Estate Icon.

Michael Ablon's community work includes founding Chairman of the Trinity River Corridor LGC for the Harold Simmons Park, Chairman of The Real Estate Council, Executive Committee member for the Southern Gateway Park adjacent to the Dallas Zoo, Vice Chairman of The Legacy, and on the Advisory Board of Directors for BBVA Compass Bank.