

Andrew White

Asset & Wealth Management

Dallas

Andrew is a managing director in Real Estate within Goldman Sachs Asset Management, serving as global head of Real Estate Credit. He is a member of the Asset & Wealth Management Private Real Estate Investment Committee and the Urban Investment Group Investment Committee. Previously, he was head of US Real Estate Credit Investing. He joined Archon Group, formerly a subsidiary of Goldman Sachs, in 2006 as an analyst and was named managing director in 2019.

Andrew serves on the Board of Directors for The Real Estate Council in Dallas. He also serves on the Board for Dallas CASA.

Andrew earned a BBA in Finance from the University of Notre Dame in 2005.