

Christopher Kleinert

CEO

Hunt Realty Investments

Chris Kleinert oversees the real estate (Hunt Realty Investments), investment (Hunt Investment Group) and ranching operations (Hoodoo Land Holdings) for Hunt Consolidated, Inc.

Chris currently serves on the Board of Directors of Austin Street Center, the Board of Directors of Downtown Dallas, Inc., the Board of Trustees and the Executive Board of Directors of the Cox School of Business at Southern Methodist University, and the Board of Trustees of the Southwestern Medical Foundation. Chris served as the inaugural chairman of the Men's Advocacy Group (MAG) of New Friends New Life, an organization dedicated to supporting and empowering victims of sex trafficking.

In 2017, Chris and his wife, Ashlee, co-founded The Good Foundation with the mission of serving vulnerable populations in our community in need of a chance.

Chris received an MBA with a concentration in finance from Texas Christian University and a BBA in marketing from Southern Methodist University.